Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-18, 21 and 22, drawn to a method for the preparation of a cross-linked enzyme crystal.

Group II, claim(s) 19, 20, 23 and 24, drawn to a method of continuous generation of a glucose solution.

2. The groups of inventions listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

Khalaf (US Patent 5,932,212 – cited on IDS) teach a method of cross-linking lipase crystals (e.g. a hydrolase) which are solvent tolerant, thermostable and shear resistant wherein in Example 1, Pseudomonas cepacia lipase is crystallized in the presence of 20 mM calcium acetate, 200 mM magnesium sulfate (suitable salts), 23% isopropanol (e.g. a co-solvent also known as 2-propanol which is “about 20%”) and 1% glucopan (a non-ionic surfactant) at pH 5.5 and a temperature of 12°C (e.g. “about 10°C”) for about 16 hours.

This was followed by cross-linking the formed crystals with glutaraldehyde in 100 mM Tris at pH 9.25 (e.g. “about 8”) for eight hours at room-temperature.

This was followed by washing of the crystals extensively.

The washed crystals were placed in storage buffer and exposed to the surfactant N,N',N-polyoxyethylene (10)-N-tallow-1,3-diaminopropane (EDT-20 PEG-10 tallow aminopropylamine) together with 2-butanone to obtain a surfactant:cross-linked enzyme crystals ratio of 1:1. This was followed by drying of said crystals.

It is also taught in Col 11., lines 58-62 that alternative to drying the cross-linked enzyme crystals, the crosslinked enzyme crystal/surfactant combination may be lyophilized in the presence of an organic solvent. Lyophilization may be carried out for a period of time between about 30 minutes and about 18 hours.

Thus, the teachings of Khalaf minimally anticipate the instant claim 1.

3. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse. Traversal must be presented at the time of election in order to be considered timely. Failure to timely traverse the requirement will result in the loss of right to petition under 37 CFR 1.144. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable on the elected invention or species.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions have unity of invention (37 CFR 1.475(a)), applicant must provide reasons in support thereof. Applicant may submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. Where such evidence or admission is provided by applicant, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

4. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

5. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to SUZANNE M. NOAKES whose telephone number is (571)272-2924. The examiner can normally be reached on 7.00 AM-3.30 PM.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Manjunath Rao can be reached on 571-272-0939. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
